

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER LEADERSHIP CERTIFICATE

The U.S. Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Council, in conjunction with the DOD Comptroller, launched the CFO Academy in the summer of 2008 at the NDU College of Information and Cyberspace (CIC). The CFO Academy offers graduate-level courses and services for middle- to senior- level personnel in the government financial management community to prepare them to create and lead 21st Century government organizations. All CFO Academy programs support and comply with DOD Comptroller's Financial Management Competencies.

The educational program offered by the CFO Academy is the CFO Leadership Certificate. The CFO Leadership Program is noted for a strategic leadership curriculum that is dynamic and relevant to the evolving needs of the government financial management community, including personnel who work in accounting and finance, budget formulation and execution, cost analysis, auditing, and resource management. It focuses on current and future challenges and opportunities facing government financial professionals. The program highlights the changing role of CFOs as organizational leaders of 21st century government.

Successful CFO graduates will be able to:

- Lead within and across organizational boundaries by leveraging financial resources, information, technology, human resources for strategic advantage;
- Achieve the goals of the Department of Defense financial management certification by evaluating the development and implementation of financial management strategies, policies, processes, operations and systems;
- Lead in an ethical manner at the enterprise level by linking critical decisions regarding resources, people, processes, and technologies to mission performance, decision support, information assurance, financial reporting, and financial systems security requirements;
- Synthesize theory and best practices from government, private sector, and not-for-profits to achieve organization's missions, and
- Communicate at the strategic level demonstrating command of the topic, logical organization, compelling argument, and excellence in English grammar and syntax.
